

THE SCRUM JOURNEY

WELCOME TO SCRUM

Set a foundation for Scrum!

SCRUM TEAMS

Discover the 3 essential “roles” - Product Owner, Scrum Master, and Development Team, and their unique responsibilities in driving the project forward.

THE PRODUCT OWNER

Gather an understanding of Product Owners and their ability to juggle a multitude of tasks to keep the team functioning like a well-oiled machine.

SCRUM EVENTS

Discover the four events that define a Sprint and drive continuous improvement.

SPRINT PLANNING

Time for the meat and potatoes of Sprints.

SCRUM PILLARS & VALUES

Understand what transparency, inspection, and adaptation mean and how they impact the Scrum process.

THE DEVELOPERS

Developers' organization, collaborative problem-solving, and unwavering commitment to quality are ways they showcase their technical expertise.

THE SCRUM MASTER

The Scrum Master doesn't make decisions about the Product, doesn't manage the project, doesn't hire or fire people, so... what does the Scrum Master do?

THE SPRINT

Embrace working on a tight timeline by completing Sprints! Learn all about how they work and why they're important.

THE DAILY SCRUM

This is the recipe for staying aligned, avoiding roadblocks, and continuous improvement!

SPRINT REVIEW

The Sprint review is all about showcasing your team's achievements, gathering valuable feedback, and setting the stage for more wins!

12

SCRUM ARTIFACTS

Product Backlogs, Sprint Backlogs, and Increments galore! These dynamic tools empower teams to achieve outstanding results.

14

THE SPRINT BACKLOG

Learn how to select and refine tasks for optimal Sprint efficiency.

16

11

SPRINT RETROSPECTIVE

This week we're exploring the Sprint Retrospective and the best practices that come with it.

13

THE PRODUCT BACKLOG

The Backlog is a living document: Continuously evolving with priorities, estimates, and new insights.

15

THE INCREMENT

Each Increment represents a completed piece of functionality, building towards the full product vision.